PINE FOREST

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

THE PASTOR'S PAGE

This morning before I started writing this newsletter article, I was working on a new bible study for Wednesday nights from the Book of John. As I was reading, something jumped off the page. When John writes about Jesus he writes as one who knew him, who walked with him, and who was totally committed to him, not as an idea or theological premise. Jesus was not his religion, He was his King.

Today we sometimes speak of Jesus as a subject of theological discourse or historical significance, but He is so much more than that. He did not just live a long time ago, but still lives today. As the old hymn says, "I serve a risen Savior, He's in the world today". He is the author of salvation and true guide for our lives. He is the ultimate authority on all things and our response to Him determines not only the course of our life here, but also our eternal disposition. He is the power of salvation, the fountain of love, the bringer of justice and the judge of all mankind.

Jesus is a personal living savior. His ideas do not bless us, His presence transforms us. So let us make every effort to tell people about Jesus, invite people to church, and help people meet the ONE who can truly change their lives forever.

In Christ, Andy
